Reedsville, WI 54230

Make check payable to: ECSCA/NCC 2007. Any questions or concerns, feel free to call me at home, evenings only please.

The venue for this years National Field Trial will be some of the most challenging you have seen. There are rolling hills, high canopy woods and wetlands for the trial, and a 100+ year old barn as the central daytime gathering place. We will be kicking off the event with a Welcome Tailgate Party at a local theater with live entertainment and music following training. Please wear your favorite team colors to this event! Our club looks forward to hosting this years gathering of the Cocker community.

Thanks,

Melanie Connolly
