

AKC Spaniel Field Trial Judging and Handling Seminar

Presented by the Minnesota Hunting Spaniel Association

Are you interested in learning more about what judges are looking for in spaniel field trials or do you want to become a field trial judge? Come and participate in a presentation and panel discussion along with an actual hands-on judging experience in the field!

(This is a required seminar to become an AKC spaniel field trial judge for both Springers and English Cocker/Cockers)

Where: Major Ave. Hunt Club - 11721 Major Ave. Glencoe, MN

When: Sunday, July 14, 2013 from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Cost: $80.00 (includes lunch)

Moderator: Tom Meyer, AKC Field Representative and senior AKC spaniel FT judge

Panel: Paul McGagh, Jason Givens and Mark Haglin

All three panel members are senior AKC spaniel field trial judges, professional trainers and handlers. Paul handles and trains both English Cocker and Springers, Jason handles and trains Springers and Mark handles and trains Springers and is in charge of the Midwest Interclub Field Trial Gun seminar program. The panel and moderator have judged many national championship field trials and both cocker and springer field trials.

Included in the conversations will be low, medium and high priority attributes of the dogs, technicalities of judging (Judge's authority and responsibility, positive vs. negative judging, rule violations, judge's discretion) and much more! Bring questions for discussion both as a handler or a judge!

Send a check made out to MHSA for $80.00 by July 6th to:
